

V006 Observation of an Authentic life

I am living an authentic life that has truly found its purpose. A life that is infectious, full of strength, power, for I have found the place of rest. My life is based upon biblical principles, a life that makes a difference to all those that I meet. I am blessed, for I hunger and thirst for righteousness. I have said of the Lord that He is good to us, blessing us with every spiritual blessing, holding back nothing. Our lives are balanced, focused on the prize, so therefore I will use my time, efforts and resources to advance His kingdom.

My life is free from the love of money, filled with being content, knowing that all my needs are met according to His riches. For if God is for me who can be against me. I honor God with my increase. He shall receive the first the best of all that my household produces. He has given to us the abundance for He truly is the owner of all things. We are merely His stewards, with all the resources that we have been entrusted. We have been found trustworthy; therefore, we can be entrusted with more, way more.

The Lord will command His blessing to be upon our lives, upon all that we put our hands to. He will bless us in the land in which the Lord has given us. We will receive favor, with both God and man. The Lord will extend to us kindness, and make us prosper in both seasons of abundance, and seasons of lack. No good thing shall He hold back from us, for we are in covenant with Him, the most-high God.

We are not hasty in our decisions which brings poverty, but rather on a steadfast journey, because steadily plodding brings prosperity. We will not lose heart in doing good for we are those who are to reap in due time. It is God and God alone that causes us to increase, so we have put our full confidence in His ability.

We live our lives knowing that today could be our last. We have invested our lives with things that hold an eternal reward, impacting all those lives that need the truth about your love, mercy and grace. For it was your salvation, and the cost that was paid, so we could have eternal life, removing the barrier so we could once again be one with you. It is because of this life that we have the ability to overcome and live the abundant life. Our lives have been built in such a way, that we have a treasury of goods stored up to be shared with all those you send our way. Our foundation for the future has been built upon your bedrock, knowing that your word will never fail us.

Help us dear Lord to number our days presenting You a heart filled, with your wisdom. We watch our steps, making the most out of the time that we have, knowing that we are walking in your purpose and plan for our lives. Our treasure has been stored up in heaven, and it is in this place you will find our hearts connected to your perfect will.

The word of Christ dwells richly within us, for we have learnt the secret to a successful life. Our daily lives set forth time where we spend it in your word, prayer, and in conversation with you. It is because of this time, that we are able to discern both, the good and evil in this world. We have taught ourselves to take your word and meditate upon it, knowing that it will unlock a life, full of prosperity and success on all sides. Our lives will operate in obedience, and it will be our trademark, our witness, to an unbelieving world. For this is our Love for you that we keep your teachings close to our hearts that we might not sin against you.

You dear Lord, you will remain our steadfast guide in the perilous times that we find ourselves in. We will live our lives in a way that will bring glory honor to your name. We will hold fast to You and serve you with all our hearts and soul. You have promised us a life that is filled with the knowledge of your will. To be filled in all spiritual wisdom and understanding. That we would walk in a manner worthy, a life that is pleasing You in all aspects, bearing fruit in every good work increasing every day in the knowledge of who you are.

Prayer

Dear Lord take our lives in what ever form you might find them in and make them into something beautiful. We desire to live by your true design, to follow the path that you have set before us. Please walk beside us each day, as we press into the Journey of a lifetime.

Our lives need to make a difference, for your kingdom sake. When our lives are no more, we desire that we are able to say that we have glorified you here on this earth, having accomplished the works which you have given us to do.
